

Read Through the Bible in One Year

Dear Church Family,

As we begin a new calendar year, I want to share a daily reading plan with you that many will find helpful. We have had the unwelcome reality of social isolation for most of the past year. It has been a discouragement to most of us. Last spring many of you joined me for a reading challenge that took us through Paul's Epistles. I challenged you to look for "hope" in each day's reading. It was a good experience for us bringing a sense of unity to us as a church family, even though we were still unable to gather together.

That's why I'm introducing this reading plan for our church family for 2021. Nothing brings comfort to the child of God like reading and studying the Word of God. As we continue forging ahead believing that there are better days in store for our world, I want to challenge you to read, and hide, God's Word in your heart.

This plan invites you to read an Old Testament passage, a New Testament passage, a Psalm (the prayer book of ancient Israel) and a section from Proverbs every day. I encourage you to read it in a Bible that you will want to highlight, underline, or make marginal notes as I believe that will be great blessing to you.

As the year progresses, I hope you will find that God speaks to you through His Word. I have found Him faithful to do just that. Here are some "pastoral recommendations" to help you get the most out of this Bible Reading Plan.

1. Choose a time of day that will allow you to be consistent. You'll find that reading the same time every day will help you make this a priority.
2. Choose a place and make that place your "reading sanctuary" for this exercise. You will find reading at the same time, and in the same place will help you look forward to meeting God each day.
3. Whisper a prayer for the Holy Spirit's help as you begin your reading, and then end your reading time with a word of prayer, perhaps using a prayer list of those needs on your heart.

That's it. Get ready for a spiritually rich experience, and may God bless you in the reading of His Word.

Onward,

Pastor Frank
