

God Will Provide

Genesis 22:1-19

Observations: What we learn from the text.

God sends tests our way to prove the quality of our _____ and _____, often through _____ or _____.

Jehovah Jireh means the Lord will _____, or the Lord will _____.

God's _____-_____ means God's _____-_____.

Providence: We are never in the grip of blind forces (fortune, chance, luck, fate); all that happens to us is divinely planned, and each event comes as a new summons to _____, _____, and _____, knowing that what God does is for my spiritual and eternal good. (see Romans 8:28)

Surrender and Providence: We would never choose the _____ path. To be humbled is to be put into the position in which God can find more room in our lives to operate. The process of proving is often _____, but _____.

Application: God has provided for your greatest needs.

1. God provides the Holy Spirit to be at work in us to convince us of the _____ of the gospel and our _____ for a Savior.

2. God provides the precious blood of Christ who died _____ to take away our sin.
3. God provides His Word, the Bible, so we can _____ and know _____.
4. God provides His _____ for our _____.
5. God provides a way of _____ when we are _____.
6. God provides _____ for the _____ we face.
7. God provides _____ for the times of _____.
8. God provides _____ for every _____.
9. God provides divine _____ for our _____.
