

Know what God Has Done

Deuteronomy 8:1-20

And you shall remember the whole way that the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not. Deuteronomy 8:2

The wilderness period was not only a punishment for a rebellious people, it was also a _____ for those who wanted to _____ and _____.

The Divine Purpose in Trial

Deuteronomy 8:2-6

The wilderness journey was _____ (v2), _____ (v3), and _____ (1:34-35), but it was also a journey marked by the _____ of God (v.2).

God always works with a motive. This passage reminds us that God works in the wilderness experiences of life to

- _____ us.
- _____ us.
- _____ us.

The Wilderness as a Classroom

Warren Wiersbe encourages the believer who is in the wilderness to remember the following:

- The wilderness is a place of _____.
- The wilderness is a place of _____.
- The wilderness is a place of _____, and can be a place of _____.
- The wilderness is a place of _____.

The Dangers of Forgetting God

Take care lest you forget the LORD your God by not keeping his commandments and his rules and his statutes, which I command you today, lest, when you have eaten and are full and have built good houses and live in them, and when your herds and flocks multiply and your silver and gold is multiplied and all that you have is multiplied, then your heart be lifted up, and you forget the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. Deuteronomy 8:11-14

Two key words in Deuteronomy 8 are _____ and _____.

Forgetfulness leads to _____ and _____. Remembering serves as an anchor in the _____ and _____ of God.

Be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. 1 Peter 5:5

If you'd like to talk about what it means to know God and live for God, or if you have any questions about our church or ministry, please email me at Frank.Lewis@Nashvillefirst.org or text the word "Connect" to

615-640-3712